Bless Retirement Living-A new leash in your Twilight Years

Retirement is one of those major milestones in life that marks the ending of one chapter and the opening of another. Incorporated under the Indian Companies Act 2013, Bless Homes Pvt Ltd was conceived with the sole idea of providing the best possible living conditions for senior citizens. More precisely, Bless Retirement Living (BRL) under the umbrella of Bless addresses the various concerns of a retirement life with a view to facilitating an active and dignified life for senior citizens. Located in a serene, peaceful ambience at South Vazhakulam near Aluva, the facility is surrounded by a canopy of greenery, the place is deeply evocative of a heavenly resort where residents can enjoy beautiful sunrises and picturesque sunsets.

Benefits of a Retirement Community

With the growing impact of Globalization, the societal changes have reflected a destabilized joint family system with nuclear families being the norm of today. From being a stigma, during the unprecedented times of COVID -19; retirement homes have established themselves as the need of the hour considering the comfort, safety and security of the increased elderly population.

Bless Retirement Living offers a unique blend of a private home and community living. We strive to eliminate the responsibilities associated with home ownership and maintenance, diminishes concerns of physical safety and a sense of isolation or loneliness. Residents with common interests are able to develop a sense of community which enhances their quality of life. The geriatric-friendly environment allows the residents to live with a sense of independence and new found enthusiasm to explore new areas of interests. The assurance that when age related concerns affects their physical functioning and self-reliance dwindles they can continue to live in the community that they are familiar with, enjoying the company of their friends and loved ones. When the necessities rise, they are met by well trained and compassionate staffs, who provide them with the adequate care round the clock with a smile.

What makes us the right choice?

The interiors are thoughtfully designed with handrails and other adaptable features to enable the residents to move around with ease. In fact, the apartments are designed in such a way that even someone who is wheelchair bound can perform their activities of daily life, if they wish to. Some of the main features include:

- Elderly friendly infrastructure
